BEA-USA Opens Branch in Oakland, California
Bank Also Rationalises Branch Network in San Francisco

Hong Kong, 20th January, 2009 – The Bank of East Asia (“BEA”) today announces that its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Bank of East Asia (U.S.A.) N.A. (“BEA-USA”), has opened a new branch in Oakland, California, a densely populated city and major west coast port. BEA-USA’s newest branch is located on Ninth Street in one of the city’s major retail and commercial districts serving the Asian community.

Services offered by BEA-USA’s Oakland Branch include account and deposit services, residential and commercial mortgages, commercial loans, small business loans, trade finance, and remittance services.

As part of its ongoing branch rationalisation efforts, BEA-USA will also merge its San Francisco Financial District Branch with its San Francisco Chinatown Branch after the close of business on 23rd January, 2009. Once the merger is completed, customers in the Financial District should visit the Chinatown Branch (address: 1001 Grant Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94133) for assistance.

With the opening of its Oakland Branch, BEA-USA now offers banking services to residents and businesses on the eastern side of San Francisco Bay. BEA-USA also operates four other branches in the Bay Area: three in San Francisco to the west, and one in South San Francisco near Silicon Valley.

Located at 401 Ninth Street, Oakland, CA, 94607, US, the Oakland Branch is open for business from Monday to Thursday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Friday 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., and Saturday 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. For more information on the branch and the services available, please call the Branch Manager, Mrs. Ellen Tam on (1-510) 208-2141.

About The Bank of East Asia (U.S.A.) N.A.
