Self-Certification Form – Entity Account Holder¹

(For CRS)

Important Notes:

- Pursuant to the Inland Revenue Ordinance for implementation of the international standard on automatic exchange of financial account information in tax matters ("AEOI") and its Common Reporting Standard ("CRS") as promulgated by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD"), The Bank of East Asia, Limited 東亞銀行有限公司 (the "Bank") is required to apply due diligence procedures to identify an account holder's jurisdiction of tax residence and collect certain information with this self-certification form for the purpose of AEOI. You can find more information of the AEOI/CRS arrangement in Hong Kong at the website of the Inland Revenue Department of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region ("Hong Kong IRD") (https://www.ird.gov.hk/eng/tax/dta_aeoi.htm).
- Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence, and various jurisdictions provide information on how to determine if you are resident in that particular jurisdiction for tax purposes. Generally, an entity is a tax resident of a jurisdiction having regard to the entity's place of incorporation or where the central management and control of the entity lies. For more information on tax residence, please consult your tax advisor or the information at the OECD automatic exchange of information portal (https://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/).
- If the account holder and/or the controlling person(s) (in case of the account holder being passive non-financial entity) is/are tax resident outside Hong Kong, the Bank may need to give Hong Kong IRD the information provided in this self-certification form and other financial information with respect to the account holder's financial accounts, and such information may then be exchanged with the tax authorities of jurisdiction(s) in which the account holder and/or its controlling person(s) (as the case may be) is/are tax resident. If the account holder submits the selfcertification form to the Bank after closing all financial account(s) with the Bank, the information as stated in the self-certification form will not be reflected in the previous reporting year(s).
- This self-certification form will remain valid unless there is a change in circumstances² relating to information, such as the account holder's tax residency status or other mandatory field information that makes this self-certification form incorrect or incomplete. In that case, you must notify the Bank and provide a new self-certification form and/or documentary evidence within 30 days of such change in circumstances.
- Please fill in this self-certification form if you are an entity account holder. For joint or multiple account holders, each entity account holder is required to complete a separate self-certification form. For entity account holder that is passive non-financial entity under the CRS, each controlling person is required to complete a separate self-certification form.
- Information in fields/parts marked with an asterisk (*) is required to be reported by the Bank to the Hong Kong IRD.
- Kindly note that the Bank is unable to offer any tax advice to customers. For tax-related questions, you should seek advice from professional tax advisors or refer to the website of the Hong Kong IRD.

Completion Instructions:

- 1. Please complete this form in English using BLOCK letters.
- 2. Please complete all parts of this form (unless not applicable or otherwise specified) and mark a """ in the appropriate checkbox(es).

¹ The term "account holder" means the person listed or identified as the holder of a financial account by the Bank that maintains the account. This is regardless of whether such person is a flow-through entity. Thus, for example, if a trust or an estate is listed as the holder or owner of a financial account, the trust or estate is the account holder, rather than the trustee or the trust's owners or beneficiaries. Similarly, if a partnership is listed as the holder or owner of a financial account, the partnership is the account holder, rather than the partners in the partnership. A person, other than a financial institution, holding a financial account for the benefit or account of another person as agent, custodian, nominee, signatory, investment advisor, intermediary, or legal guardian, is not treated as the account holder for the purposes of the CRS, and such other person is treated as the account holder. With respect to a jointly held account, each joint holder is treated as an account holder.

² The phrase "change in circumstances" means a situation when the CRS status of the person has been changed. A change in circumstances includes any change that results in the addition or removal of information relevant to a person's claim of tax residence status or otherwise conflicts with that person's claim of tax residence, which results in the Bank knowing or having reason to know that the original documentary evidence or other documentation previously obtained is incorrect or unreliable.
