

For Immediate Release*BEA Temporarily Closes 20 Branches

Hong Kong, 31st January, 2020 –The Bank of East Asia, Limited (“BEA”) today announces that it will close 20 of its branches starting Saturday, 1st February, 2020, until further notice, in an effort to limit the spread of Novel Coronavirus, as well as protect both its customers and staff members’ health and safety.

During this time, ATMs located within closed branches will not be available. However, BEA still has 200 ATMs across Hong Kong that are not affected by the branch closure, and customers will also still be able to use all functioning JETCO ATMs in the city.

Customers are encouraged to use BEA’s internet / phone banking services, the BEA App or visit any of the 52 BEA branches that will remain in operation. Customers can visit the Bank’s website at https://www.hkbea.com/html/en/branches\_main.html for the latest branch service information.
