TERMS OF REFERENCE

of

THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

1. CONSTITUTION

The Board of Directors had resolved to establish a committee known as the Remuneration Committee (the “Committee”) to formulate and review the remuneration policy and the remuneration packages of Directors, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel¹ of the Bank Group (hereinafter including all overseas branches and subsidiaries of The Bank of East Asia, Limited (the “Bank”) subject to the consolidated supervision of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority).

2. MEMBERSHIP

- 2.1 The Committee members shall be appointed by the Board of Directors preferably from amongst the Non-executive Directors of the Bank and shall consist of not less than two members. A majority of the members of the Committee should be Independent Non-executive Directors.
- 2.2 The Chairman of the Committee shall be an Independent Non-executive Director appointed by the Board of Directors.
- 2.3 The quorum of any Committee meeting is two members, of which at least one should be Independent Non-executive Director.
- 2.4 Once appointed, the office of the members of the Committee shall last as long as he or she remains as a Director (Executive or Non-executive) of the Bank, and the tenure will expire upon the termination or resignation of the member of the Committee as a Director. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors may terminate the appointment of any member of the Committee at any time.
- 2.5 The Company Secretary shall act as the Secretary of the Committee.

3. FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

Meetings shall be held not less than once a year.

¹ “Key Personnel” shall include the Head of Capital Markets & Liquidity Management Department and the Head of Fixed Income Capital Markets Department.

4. DUTIES

The specific duties of the Committee shall be:

- (a) to make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the Bank Group's remuneration policy and structure for all Directors, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel as appropriate and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing a remuneration policy;
- (b) to review and recommend to the Board of Directors on the remuneration packages of Executive Directors, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel, including benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments. The Committee should consider factors such as salaries paid by the comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities of Executive Directors, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel, employment conditions elsewhere in the Bank Group and desirability of performance-based remuneration;
- (c) to make recommendations to the Board of Directors on the remuneration packages of Non-executive Directors (including Independent Non-executive Directors);
- (d) to review performance-based remuneration by reference to corporate goals and objectives resolved by the Board of Directors and advise the Board of Directors for ex-post risk adjustment when necessary;
- (e) to review the proposed funding for annual salary review and variable pay pool for the Bank Group by reference to the Bank Group's performance and market conditions;
- (f) to review at least annually the appropriateness of deferral threshold with the aim to align remuneration with prudent risk-taking;
- (g) to review and approve the remuneration policy applicable to employees' remuneration packages to ensure that it is consistent with any applicable legal and regulatory requirements imposed by any legal body and public authority;
- (h) to carefully evaluate any practices by which remuneration is paid for potential future revenues whose timing and likelihood remain uncertain. In so doing, the Committee should demonstrate that its decisions are consistent with an assessment of the Bank Group's financial condition and future prospects;

- (i) to review the annual audit report submitted by the Bank's Internal Audit Division (independent of the management) on the Bank's remuneration system and its operation, including the assessment of consistency with any prevailing guideline and ensure the result of the annual audit be submitted to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority;
- (j) to work closely with other relevant committees of the Board of Directors, including but not limited to Risk Committee and Audit Committee; and consult the Bank's risk control functions on the development of the remuneration system of the Bank;
- (k) to review and approve the compensation payable to Directors, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel relating to any loss or termination of the office or appointment, and any compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of Directors, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel for misconduct, to ensure that such compensation or arrangements are consistent with contractual terms and that any such compensation is otherwise fair and not excessive, and any such arrangements are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- (l) to ensure that no Director, Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives or any of their associates are involved in deciding their own remunerations;
- (m) to seek independent professional advice on matters of remuneration for Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel if and when necessary;
- (n) to review the classification of Material Risk Takers ("MRTs") within the Bank in accordance with the prevailing regulatory requirements and the list of individual MRTs including the Executive Chairman, Co-Chief Executives, Deputy Chief Executives, General Managers and Key Personnel regularly (at least annually) or as and when necessary;
- (o) to regularly review and confirm, assisted by internal audit functions or other experts where appropriate the effectiveness of the overall culture enhancement initiatives pursued by the Bank;
- (p) to approve, review and assess, at least annually, the adequacy of any relevant statement which set out the Bank's culture and behavioral standards, and ensure that such statement is translated into policies and procedures; and
- (q) to review at least annually the results of the relevant assessment and feedback mechanisms, e.g. escalation policy to monitor adherence to the Bank's cultural and behavioral standards.
